	associate, or:
	(a) any firm of which they are a partner or employee;
	(b) or any limited company of which they are a director, or
	(c) employee or shareholder of more than 5% of the equity or voting power, or
	(d) any limited liability partnership of which they are a member, or
	(e) any Scottish charitable incorporated organisation of which they are a charity trustee, or
	(f) any registered society or unincorporated association of which they are a management committee member (or any other party who/which is deemed to be connected with them for the purposes of the Act),

Λ	has a personal interest in that arrangement.
Article 43	Additionally, the Board may resolve at any time to require all Directors to deliver a notice of relevant interests to the Registered Office, as they arise and at least annually. In that event, the Board shall determine from time to time what interests shall be relevant interests and shall ensure that a Register of Notices of Relevant Interests is maintained, which shall be open for inspection by both the Board and Members and, with the express prior written approval of the Director or employee concerned, by members of the public.
Article	Whenever a Director finds that there is a personal interest, as defined in
44	Article 42, he or she has a duty to declare this to the Board during the meeting in question. It will be up to the Chairman of the meeting in question to determine:
Article 44.1	whether the potential or real conflict simply be noted in the Minutes of any relevant meeting,
Article 44.2	whether the Director in question, whilst being permitted to remain in the meeting in question, must not partake in discussions or decisions relating to such matter, or
Article	whether the Director in question should be required to be absent during

Article	The quorum for Board meetings shall be not less than 50% of all the
45	Directors. provided that the Elected Directors are always in the majority at any Board meeting. No business shall be dealt with at a Board meeting unless such a quorum is present.
Article	A Director shall not be counted in the quorum at a meeting (or at least the
46	relevant part thereof) in relation to a resolution on which, whether because of personal interest or otherwise, he or she is not entitled to vote in terms of Article 44.2 and 44.3
	Meetings of the Board of Directors
Article 47	Meetings of the Board may take place in person or by telephone conference call, video conference call or by any other collective electronic means approved from time to time by the Board.
Article 48	7 Clear Days' notice in writing shall be given of any meeting of the Board at which a decision in relation to any of the matters referred to in Article 26 is to be made, which notice shall be accompanied by an agenda and any papers relevant to the matter to be decided.
Article 48.1	All other Board meetings shall require not less than 7 Clear Days' prior notice, unless all Directors agree unanimously in writing to dispense with such notice on any specific occasion.
Article 49	A Director may, and on the request of a Director the Company Secretary shall, summon a meeting of the Board by notice served upon all Directors, to take place at a reasonably convenient time and date.

Article 50	The Chairman, whom failing the Vice-Chairman (if any), shall be entitled to preside as Chairman of all Board meetings at which he or she is present. If at any meeting neither the Chairman nor the Vice-Chairman is present and willing to act as Chairman of the meeting within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the remaining Directors may appoint one of the Elected Directors to be Chairman of the Board meeting, which failing the meeting shall be adjourned until a time and date when the Chairman or Vice-Chairman will be available.
Article 51	The Chairman of the Board meeting shall endeavour to achieve consensus wherever possible but, if necessary, questions arising shall be decided by being put to the vote, each Director present and entitled to vote, having one vote. In the event of an equal number of votes for and against any resolution at a Board meeting, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote as well as a deliberative vote.
Article 52	The Board may delegate any of its powers to sub-committees, each consisting of not less than one Director and such other person or persons as it thinks fit or which it delegates to the sub-committee to appoint. Any sub-committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any remit and regulations imposed on it by the Board. The meetings and proceedings of any such sub-committee shall be governed by the provisions of these Articles for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Board so far as applicable and so far as the same shall not be superseded by any regulations made by the Board. Such sub-committee shall regularly and promptly circulate, or ensure the regular and prompt circulation of, the minutes of its meetings to all Directors.
Article 53	The Board shall cause minutes to be made of all appointments of officers made by it and of the proceedings of all AGMs, GMs, Board meetings and of sub-committee meetings, including the names of those present, and all business transacted at such meetings and any such minutes of any meeting, if purporting to be signed after approval, either by the Chairman of such meeting, or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be sufficient evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.
Article 53.1	Subject to Article 53.2, the Company, upon request of any person for a copy of any minutes must, if the request is reasonable, give the person within 28 days of the request a copy of the requested minutes.
Article 53.2	Where such a request is received under Article 53.1 the company:  (a) may withhold information contained in the minutes, and  (b) if it does so, must inform the person requesting a copy of the minutes of its reason for doing so.
Article 54	No alteration of the Articles and no direction given by special resolution shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given.
Article 55	A resolution in writing (whether one single document signed by all or a sufficient majority of the Elected Directors, or all or a sufficient majority of the Members of any sub-committee), whether in one or several documents in the same form each signed by one or more Directors or Members of any relative sub-committee as appropriate, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board or of such sub-committee duly convened and constituted.  The Board may act notwithstanding any vacancy in it, but where the number of Directors falls below the minimum number specified in Article 30, it may not conduct any business other than to appoint sufficient Directors to match or exceed that minimum.
